Price Increase of SEPTON™, HYBRAR™, TU-Polymer, Liquid Rubber and ISOBAM™

The Elastomers Business Unit will raise the transaction prices of following Elastomer Business related products in North American region, effective May 1, 2025, or as existing supply agreements allow:

ALL SEPTON™, HYBRAR™, TU-Polymer, Liquid Rubber and ISOBAM™, according to the U.S. import tariff change and all related cost increases.

This time, it is necessary to recover a portion of these increases to ensure ongoing supply and new product innovation. We will keep monitoring tariffs and global situation.
